History Department

Course (syllabus) outcome for the students

1. Theory concepts & Ancient Indian Historiography: In this paper the student get knowledge meaning & scope of History & Historiography.

2. Political History of Indian (from the earliest time to 184 BC): Through this paper students gain knowledge from pre historic period to mauryan empire & get knowledge of Jainism & Buddihism.

3. Political History of Indian (from 185 B.C. to 650 A.D.): On this paper students get knowledge of Kushana Period to Gupta Period.

4. Social History of India: Through this paper students gain knowledge of social structure as varna system, ashram system, caste system & the most important thing about ancient indian education system.

5. Political History of North India (from 651 to 1200 A.D.): This paper gets knowledge of origin of Rajputs, Arab & Turks in vision & different practices of North Indian Rajputs.

6. Political History of south India (from mid 600to 1200 A.D.): In this paper students get knowledge of south Indian dynasties, administration & different regional system.

7. Economic History of Ancient India (from the earliest time to 1200 A.D.): This paper gets knowledge of Trade & Commerce, Trader Craft guilds, revenue system, coin & currency, trade rates of different dynasties.

8. Field Archaeology: Through this paper students gain the definition & meaning of Archeology, Indian Antuqvarion law, different methods of excavations, documentation & dating methods.

9. Indian Pre History: This paper gets knowledge to students about human evolution & different stages of pre historic period & tool making technology.

10. Indian Proto History & Early Historical Period: This paper gets knowledge to students about Harappn chalcolithic culture, iron age culture & types of clay Pottery & important Excavated sites.

11. Ancient Indian Palacography & Epigraphy: Students gain knowledge through this paper about Antiquity writing origin of script & study of Inscriptions about different dynasties.

12. Ancient Indian Numismatics: Students gain knowledge through this paper about Antiquity & Techniques of manufacturing of coinage of different dynasties of India.

13. Indian Architecture: Through this paper students get knowledge of Harappan Architecture, rock-cut Architecture & different types of temples in India.

14. Indian Art & Iconography: Through this paper students get knowledge of Prehistoric Paintings, Wall Paintings of Ajanta & Bagh, Mathura & Gaandhar school of art.

15. Indian Culture & Thoughts: Through this paper students gain knowledge of contribution of Indian culture to the world, Development of religion & Philosophy & socio- religious movement durin the 19th century.

16. Archaeology & Applied science: This paper gets knowledge to the students of different types of rocks, minerals, contribution of Anthropology, Archaeozoology, Archaeobotany in Archaeology.

Programme Specific outcome

P.So1. After completing the master's course in Ancient Indian History Culture & Archaeology students offer a deeper insight into the practices of archaeology and in most suited for someone with ability solving problems along with a huge inclination and interest towards history & Archaeology & general.

P.So2. The course provide access to topics like the practices and archaeology and the interrogation of applied sciences with archaeology.

P.So3. The course is fascinating and helps the students in building returning the mindset required for the ethical and creative aspects of file associated with being a historian or an archivist.

P.So4. After this course the students will be ensure to learn the skill of asking the right questions and looking at the right place.

P.So5. The course is mandate for conducting any kinds of research involving new methods and also for further studies.

P.So6. Understand the privileges and obligation associated with 9 career as a Professional historian.

P.So7. Understand Historical trends in theory and methods and may be able to identity and explain major trends and issues in historiography.